

Faculty Name: Stephen Zawistowski

Location: Chelsea, Michigan

Phone:

E-mail: animalogicsz@gmail.com
Stephen.zawistowski@aspc.org
jzawisto@hunter.cuny.edu

Fall 2015

Faculty Research Area

General Area of Research

Companion animal behavior and welfare; urban animals;

Description of Current Research

Population models of free roaming cats; applied canine behavior

Requirements and Benefits for Student

Essential and Desirable Background Knowledge and Skills

Essential: Background in ethology/comparative psychology; research methods

Desirable: physiology, genetics

Expected Responsibilities

Design and conduct a research project with limited direct oversight given my location.

Expected Benefits

Potential employment opportunities in the animal welfare and/pet industry.

Department of Psychology
MA Program in Animal Behavior and Conservation
Hunter College of the City University of New York
695 Park Avenue • New York, NY 10065